

Costs associated with the AACCP Stage Two Accreditation Assessment Process

Application fee – this includes both the annual fee and the assessment fee:

- General fee - $872.22. You must lodge your application within three years of completing your Stage One (preparatory) Course. This includes your annual fee.
- Discounted fee –$697.80. To be eligible for the 20% discount on the fee, you need to lodge your application within 30 days of completing your Stage One (preparatory) Course. This includes your annual fee.

Annual fee - $312.43 (payable one year after you lodge your application)

Other costs:

- Third attempt at the Clinical MCQ assessment - $114.50
- Release of new case study (after two unsuccessful attempts at any of the case studies) - $109.40
- Appealing a marker's decision regarding the assessment of a case study (see the AACCP's Appeals Policy) - $128.27

Accreditation fee – $857.76. This is payable when you have successfully completed the Stage Two Accreditation Assessment process.

Reaccreditation fee - $669.13 Paid annually.

Note: The AACCP does not have details of the cost of the stage one (preparatory) courses. This information is available from the stage one providers.